HARDY AZALEAS

We select for propagation only the best of the known hardy azaleas. Strong, sturdy cuttings are made and stuck during the Summer. The strongly rooted cuttings are potted in the Fall and have all Winter to grow into fine first-class liners. They grow because they want to and have every thing they need. We do not force our plants chemically.

★ ★ ★ INTRODUCING ★ ★ ★

BARBARA

(Azalea kaempferi Fedora - selected seedling)

★ Not Patented

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------------|
| ★ Bright rose-pink | ★ Later than Fedora |
| ★ Large single trumpet | ★ Large, glossy dark green |
| ★ Hardy | ★ Compact, medium to tall |

Barbara has been a favorite from the start. Somehow we knew she would surpass Fedora and that is claiming a lot. Both the larger and brighter flower and the deeper green glossy foliage make Barbara an outstanding azalea.

NANCY

(Azalea Kaempferi Fedora x Kurume coral bells)

★ Not Patented

- | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|
| ★ Deep pink, hose in hose | ★ Large dark green leaves |
| ★ Large frilled trumpets | ★ Compact, medium height |
| ★ Hardy like Fedora | ★ Good forcer |

We've been watching Nancy for seven years and feel she is ready for her coming out. Nancy combines the hardiness of Fedora with the fine forcing characteristics of Coral bells. What more can we say.

WENDY

(Azalea Kaempferi Fedora x Ledifolia alba)

★ Not Patented

- | | |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| ★ Large single white | ★ Hardy - young or old |
| ★ Low and compact | ★ Pleasant rich green |

Last winter Wendy proved that she is what we hoped for -- a good hardy white similar to non hardy ledifolia alba. One year old plants in open field beds (lath shade 8 ft. overhead) with no wind protection suffered no splitting or bark peeling and bloomed better than we expected for such a hard open winter.
